

SAVE the DATE

December

8 - 9

3 - 6 PM CST

TRIBAL GIS® VIRTUAL EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM 2021

The National Tribal Geographic Information Support Center (NTGISC) invites you to join us for our first annual virtual GIS Education Symposium.

GIS: A 21ST CENTURY SYSTEM OF S.T.E.M. EDUCATION AND ENGAGEMENT

CALL FOR CONTENT

The GIS education symposium will provide an opportunity for tribal educators, faculty, administrators, and students to meet, learn and share about research, curriculum, issues, and trends through workshops, presentations, and discussion.

The NTGISC Education workgroup is now accepting papers, reports, abstracts, and studies. Geospatial topic areas, but not limited to: Higher Education, Adult Education, Indigenous Education, Curriculum, Research and Development, Distance Education, Technology, Teacher Education.

Content submission deadline: November 5, 2021. Submissions and questions may be sent to events@tribalgis.com or dial 918.937.4487.

PROGRAM AND REGISTRATION INFORMATION TO FOLLOW

National Tribal Geographic Information Support Center | Education Workgroup | events@tribalgis.com | 918.937.4487