

CGIA Brown Bag Web Speaker Series: Perspectives from the Field of Emergency GIS

Throughout the month of May 2019, CGIA will host a brown bag speaker series showcasing the different perspectives and experiences of emergency GIS managers, staff and other stakeholders throughout the State of CA.

Free and anyone can attend!

Brown Bag Dates & Times

All Brown Bag sessions are from 12-1PM PDT and will be available via WebEx (go to cgia.org - for more information).

Wednesday, May 8, 2019

An Overview of the Incident Command System (ICS) and Putting the ICS into Practice During Woolsey

- Alfie Blanch, GIS Manager, LA County Fire

Wednesday, May 15, 2019

Lessons from the Carr and Camp Fires

- Steven Kincaid & Devon Hedemark, City of Redding
- Marcus Harner & Dave Powers, Shasta County
- Jim Aranguren, Butte County GIS

Wednesday, May 22, 2019

Field Data Collection in the Air & On the Ground

- Roger Cleaves, CA Dept of Toxic Substances Control
- Manuel Regalado & Steven Gutierrez, LA County DPW

Wednesday, May 29, 2019

Considerations from NAPSIG & NextGen911

- Paul Doherty, NAPSG
- Rachel Rodriguez, LA County CAMS Coordinator & Co-Chair of the CA NG911 GIS Taskforce