

CGIA Brown Bag Web Speaker Series: The Role of GIS in Organizations and Strategic Planning

Throughout the spring, CGIA will host a brown bag speaker series that explores the role GIS plays in various types of organizations, how it is helping to achieve success, and why it should be a part of any strategic plans.

Free and anyone can attend!

Visit cgia.org/events/webinars to register

March 3, 2pm - 3pm

General CGIA Member Meeting &
Overview of Little Hoover Commission Report

Join CGIA to learn more about what we are doing to promote GIS in California. Presented by An-Min Wu, CGIA Chair, and Tamar Foster, Deputy Executive Director, Little Hoover Commission.

April 28, noon - 1pm

How the Geospatial Data Act Impacts GIS at Federal, State, and Local Levels

Cy Smith, State Geospatial Information Officer (GIO) for Oregon and Tony LaVoi, GIO for National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, will lead the discussion.

March 18, noon - 1pm

The Role of GIS in Asset Management, Facility
Maintenance, and Real Estate Operations

Learn how modern GIS forms decision support systems hitherto inaccessible to various organizations. Presentation by Daniel Elroi, President & CEO, NorthSouth GIS LLC.

May 13, noon - 1pm

The State of GIS Governance

Jim Sparks, Director of Geoinformatics at the Polis Center at IUPUI & former State GIO for Indiana, will lead the discussion.