

CGIA Conversation Series: GIS and Equity

From November 2023 thru Spring 2024, CGIA will host a Conversation series showcasing diverse perspectives and solutions in response to the GIS profession's most pressing social and technical challenges.

Free and open to everyone!

Conversation Times

All sessions are from 12:30 - 1:30pm (PST) and will be made available via Zoom. There will be a separate registration for each session.

November 30 - Tribal GIS

Guests will discuss the use of Tribal lands representations in maps, Tribal Data Sovereignty, and access to GIS resources for California Tribes.

March 28 - Rural Equity & GIS Register Here

Join us for a informative and engaging discussion on rural equity issues from a GIS perspective. Topics range from wildfires and cannabis to poverty and transportation.

February 15- Communities in Need

Disadvantaged? Underserved? Vulnerable? What do these terms mean for inclusivity and equitable distribution of government grants and services?

April 2024 - Planning & Equity

Stay tuned for more details!

Dewberry

PARCELQUEST